[Redacted]

Dear Hester:

I appreciate your good letter of July 27, and I regret the delay in answering. It has been due to the fact that I have been out of the country for several weeks.

I should like some day to come up and talk with you, and there is no place I should prefer to do this than with my old friends of [Redacted] - [Redacted]. Unfortunately, I see no likelihood of getting away from Washington for the next few weeks, and probably not until after the elections, but I shall keep it in mind and if there is any opportunity, I will let you know.

It was good to hear from you and from the [Redacted]

Sincerely,

(Signed) ALLEN W. DULLES
